This manual is intended to serve as a tool to educate and assist in complying with the West Virginia Medicaid Payment System. This manual is not intended to serve as a legal document for purposes of interpreting Medicaid statutes or regulations. The provider manual is designed to be supplemented with all Federal and State Laws and Regulations. This manual is intended to assist you to understand the importance of following the Medicaid rules and to provide you with the necessary information to carry out your daily responsibilities. You should carefully read and follow all sections of this manual. Do not proceed with any action unless you have received additional instructions and other information from your agent. You are required to follow the instructions of your agent to the degree that the agent knows or should know the extent of your training. If you do not have the training or experience to safely carry out the proposed actions, you must consult with the appropriate licensed health care professional or agency to which your agency is responsible for receiving instructions and for whom you should act. In this manual, the word "you" refers to the person who received the instructions or is otherwise acting for the provider or the agency. This is the current and official copy of the Justice Manual (JM). The JM was previously known as the United States Attorneys Manual (USAM). It was comprehensively revised and renamed in 2018. Sections may be updated periodically. In general, the date of last revision will be noted at the end of each section. For prior versions of the USAM, visit the USAM Archive. Sec8ef588b
